English Home Assignment

Class:V

Dear students

Summer vacations are round the corner. It's time for relaxation, enjoyment and staying connected to academics. This is your Home Assignment for English which you have to complete in your English Notebook.

Firstly try to do the homework on your own and then take help of the answer key given to check your work.

1. This homework will be thoroughly checked on reopening of the School.
2. The holiday homework must be done in a very neat and presentable manner.
4. Write the answers in proper place.
5. Do your work on daily basis.
6. Follow instructions given in detail through out the worksheet.

❖ Here starts your Notebook work which you have to complete in your English notebook. Write both chapters, each on the new page and learn the same.

Q2. Describe Miss Beam's appearance.

Ans2. Miss Beam was middle-aged,she was kind and understanding.Her hair was beginning to turn grey,and she was plump.

Q3. What was the real aim of Miss Beam's school?

Ans3. The real aim of the school was to instil thoughtfulness, humanity and citizenship.

Q4. What kind of lessons did the children at the school have?

Ans4. The lessons were simple which taught the basics of language and maths, and the rest was read out to them which they had to listen to sitting quietly.

Q5. What pained and prelexed the writer?

Ans5.All the children were not as healthy and active as every child should be.

Q6. What did the children have to do on their blind day?

Ans6. On the blind day, children had to cover their eyes and not peep. They were blindfolded the previous night and woke up blind. Other children helped them and led them out.

Q7. How did the girl with the writer know that the girl walking with Miss Beam was Millie?

Ans7. By the description that the writer gave her.

Q8. What did the writer realise while he was walking with the 'blind girl'?

Ans 8. He realised that he was now ten times more thoughtful. He also realised that describing things made them more interesting.

Let's Think and Answer.

Q1. Why did the children in Miss Beam's school have to have 'a lame day, a deaf day, a maimed day, a dumb day and a blind day'?

Ans1. For one day the children had to pretend to be lame, deaf, maimed, dumb or blind to get a real appreciation and understanding of the misfortune of others.

Q2. Why do you think the 'blind day' is the most difficult for the children?

Ans2. The 'blind day' is the most difficult for the children because they aren't able to see, which is most difficult for them since they feel frightened that they might get hurt.

Q3. 'Those that have been blind already are the best'. Why does the girl make this statement about the helpers for the 'blind' children?

Ans3. 'Those that have been blind already are the best' - shows that these children know what it feels like to be blind and are most careful as they guide the 'blind' children around.

Q7. What did the tiger do when the jackal was unable to understand what had happened?

Ans7. The tiger jumped into the cage to show the jackal what had happened.

❖ Let's Think and Answer:

Q1. Do you think the Brahmin acted bravely or out of kindness?

Ans1.The Brahmin didn't act bravely as he was very scared of the tiger. But couldn't bear to see the tiger in the cage crying and pleading so he let him out.

Q2. Why did the peepal tree, the buffalo and the road not help the Brahmin?

Ans2. They didn't help the Brahmin as they felt that everyone has been using them without giving anything in return.

Q3. Why do you think the jackal kept saying he could not understand what had happened?

Ans3. He had a plan in his head so he pretended not to understand.

- ❖ As you know that you are having Paragraph writing in your U.T-1 syllabus, so one paragraph is to be written same as below and another you have to write as Home Work on your own using the sub-points.(Start each paragraph in a new page)

- ❖ Write a paragraph on 'A friend'

'A friend in need is a friend indeed'. It means that a friend is someone who helps you in your difficulties. It is not necessary that a friend should be a person from your own class or who live near you. But it is important that a friend should be someone who listens to you and corrects you. This weekend I have invited my friend at home. We all have many friends. We also have a special friend. I too have a special friend. I like him because whenever I feel sad, I can talk to him. He listens to my problems. He tells me what is right and wrong. We play together, we share toys and things with each other.

- ❖ Points to remember while writing your paragraph→

- Your topic sentence should always introduce the main idea of the paragraph.
 - Do not write unrelated sentences. One idea should lead to another.
 - Do not write irrelevant sentences—means you should not write sentences which are not, in any way, related to the topic.
 - Write complete sentences.
 - Re-read all that you may have written, and if necessary, change the order of the sentences.
 - You may add or delete words, phrases to round out the paragraph.
 - Once you have completed your paragraph, revise for spelling, punctuation and grammatical errors.
